ACKMIE'S STORY

Founded in 2003, Ackmie emerged from the founder's quest to simplify her chaotic life.

Often disorganized, she frequently lost items in messy bags. Determined to change, she researched organizing tips and commuter bags, eventually designing her own leather briefcase.

With support from her grandfather, an experienced leather craftsman, her first creation marked the beginning of Ackmie.

From starting with a single briefcase to founding a custom leather factory, we have consistently been dedicated to turning ideas into reality with passion, pride, and expert craftsmanship.

Serving both the domestic and international markets.

OUR COMMITMENT

Ackmie Bag is dedicated to enhancing your brand image and driving growth.

As a custom leather manufacturer, we offer a one-stop solution with design, custom logos, materials, packaging, and a transparent production process.

We prioritize high quality, and all our innovations are based on a deep understanding of the high-end leather bag industry.

Reach out today and let's unlock new possibilities for your brand together.
